Description

Transform your play area into an aquatic wonderland and watch as learners dive into hours of educational fun with our Water Pump Trays Set! Perfect for both indoor and outdoor settings, it's not just a splashy addition; it's a dynamic way to engage learners in hands-on STEM activities. Children will love to pump water from one tray to another, creating their own mini rivers and waterfalls while boosting their upper arm strength. This set is like having a mini waterworks system right in your classroom or garden!
