Description

Got an outdoor shelter, a shed or a den ready to transform into a maths station? Our Maths Shed Starter Kit has got you covered—and then some! No more rummaging through random teacher resources or staring at an empty wicker basket, wondering how to kick-start your EYFS numeracy games. This versatile collection is packed with open-ended natural resource loose parts to cover all the bases of early years maths and numeracy skills. It's a starter kit that feels more like a whole year's worth of numerical fun and problem-solving activities.
