Description

Are you looking for a charming and natural way to add a touch of literacy to your EYFS setting? Look no further than our Wooden Alphabet Bunting. Unlike the usual colourful plastic options, this rustic alternative provides a stylish and eco-friendly way to decorate your space. These wooden flags spell out the alphabet, making them an ideal choice for your writing areas, reading dens or even a cosy reading corner! If you're after an authentic classroom atmosphere, why not hang a few more sets together to spell out your school's name? A bunting that doubles as a literacy tool—what's not to love?
