Description

"People From The World Spoons" are hand-painted, culturally diverse teaching tools perfect for sparking conversations about diversity in the classroom. These spoons represent people from various cultures, making them ideal for storytelling, role play, and lessons on similarities and differences. They encourage curiosity, discussions, and appreciation of global traditions. Versatile for circle time or individual exploration, they help students connect with the wider world. Display options like the Nursery Rhyme Singing Tree or Multi Stands make them easily accessible for children to explore independently.
